McKenna Video Services Receives 5 National Award Nominations

(Las Vegas, NV) Puyallup, WA based McKenna Video Services today received nominations for 5 National Video Awards. The “Hanley Awards” are given to members of the international Home Video Studio Takeone Network, the largest chain of home-based video studios in this country, at their annual convention.

“Its an incredible honor for us to be recognized for our work,” says Chris McKenna, owner of McKenna Video Services, “especially since we’re only in our second year of business.”

The categories that the McKenna’s received nominations for are:

- Best use of Titles in a Video Production
- Best Memorial Video
- “Dr. Strangelove” (category for strangest video production)
- Best Press Release
- Best Open House.

The awards ceremony will be held on Saturday, July 22 in Las Vegas.
